

BISHOP'S TACHBROOK C of E PRIMARY SCHOOL

Friday February 9th 2018 Newsletter 20

Dear Parents, Carers and Children, OOSC HOLIDAY CLUB

There's a great line up of activities to keep everyone busy at half term so please book ahead for the Half Term holiday club to avoid disappointment.

Onside Coaching Half-Term Holiday Courses

Onside Coaching are also taking bookings for the February Half-Term school holidays from 8.30 - 5.00pm.

FOOD FESTIVAL DATE CHANGE

We are now holding our Food Festival on Friday 18th May 2018. There will be plenty of seedlings and vegetable plants nurtured by our pupils on sale along with plenty of other activities.

CALENDAR DATES

Dates for Move-up day, Sports Day, Reserve Sports Day, Food Festival, KS2 performances, Father's day gifts, PTA Quiz and more can all be found on our website calendar.

The PTA are also taking the School Council's idea of a Family Fun Sports event seriously and have pencilled in Friday 22nd June; the day after Sports day for a fun filled evening from 4.30-6.30pm.

NETBALL

We came second in the tournament on Monday. Players of the match were Megan, Jack, Ben and Lucas.

FOOTBALL (2-1)

We played Leek Wootton and our Player of the match (again) was Lucas who worked his socks off! His effort, work rate and perseverance were simply amazing.

STARS OF THE WEEK

We are very proud of Daniel (R), Isabella (1), Ruby and Alex W (2), Noah and Lily (4), Daisy (5) and Matthew (6). Head Teacher's stars are Alex G and Isobel (2).

TOP ATTENDANCE

Congratulations to Reception AGAIN whose 99.7% puts them in first place this week.

E-SAFETY OFFICERS

Welcome to our new E-Safety Officers who are: Isaac and Darcey (R), Chloe D and Dylan (1), Matthew and Jess (2), Yusuf and Megan (3), Lily and Noah H-A (4), Marty and Shaan (5), Wilf and Alicia (6). Their job is to make sure that the E-Safety messages are known by everyone in the class and followed by us all too. Reception reminded us to 'Always tell a grown-up when you go online', several classes performed plays about group chats, posting comments and pictures online and Y5 reminded us that 'When you put a picture online, you can never get it back'. Thank you everyone.

CLASS OF THE WEEK

It's Year 2 for their brilliant story writing.

WORLD BOOK DAY 1st MARCH

Parents are already asking whether this is a dressing up year for World Book Day. No it's not, but we will be asking pupils to decorate a pair of bunny ears to wear on World Book Day as we read our rabbit themed books and take part in the sponsored read. (Details coming soon).

HELP WANTED IN YEAR 1

Miss Gregory is so pleased with all the progress of the children in their reading in Year 1. If you can spare part of a morning every week to listen to our wonderful Year 1 pupils reading it would make all the difference. Please contact Miss Gregory.

EGG BOXES IN TENS URGENTLY WANTED

Mrs Power still needs egg boxes. Can you help?

PTA VALENTINES DISCO

Next week it is the PTA Discos; (KS1 5.00-6.00 and KS2 6.00-7.00pm). Admission is £2.50 (including free water bottle) and a maximum of £1.50 may be brought for refreshments and face/hand painting. When you sign your child in you will be consenting to them having face paint (if they choose). Please let us know if this is not suitable for your child for any reason.

BLOWING THEIR TRUMPET ON VALENTINE'S DAY

The Y3 brass concert for parents will now be at 11.15am on Wednesday 14th February. Come along and listen to the extraordinary talent of our pupils. Apologies for the typo and the change of date.

REQUEST FOR PAST PUPILS TO COLLECT ART

Mrs Dixon has some of the current Y7's art work ready for collection. Please contact the school.

DON'T FORGET MOTHER'S DAY

Our PTA need ALL letters back by 14th February.

BRAIN TUMOUR CHARITY

Come along to a coffee morning at the Sports and Social Club on Friday 2nd March from 9.30am -12.00noon.

And finally, a joke from Seren: what did the royal taster say after drinking the poisoned water? Not much.

Best wishes,

Andy Brettell Head Teacher
