

A governor came to watch the KS1 Nativity and thoroughly enjoyed the show.
Dec 2018.

Emma watched 'A Little Bird Told Me'- a traditional nativity narrated by a robin and her friends- with a packed house of parents and grandparents who had come to watch the show. Emma reported:

'The children all played their various parts with much enthusiastic singing and lots of smiles. They were obviously all invested in the show and were doing their absolute best. Please can thanks be passed to the KS1 teachers, Mrs White and all involved, for all their hard work putting on a great show.'

“The children should be congratulated.”
