

Dear Mrs Westwood,

Thank you for inviting us to your school it was a pleasure. We enjoyed half of your playtime it was quite fun. But, when the play started things began to get interesting. It was amazing! The sound effects were haunting especially when Caesar's ghost appeared. I liked the design, I wonder if they use it for every play? Being the Roman citizens was great. When the scary sound effects came it was frightening. Thank you for letting BT school come to Sydenham school.

Dear Mrs Westwood,

Thank you for letting us come to your school and watch the RSC actors. While we were waiting, Thank you for letting us play on your play equipment.

The play made me feel speechless, scared and worried, I was inspired by it and it was fascinating. Seeing the Mark Antony speech, which was emotional. The use of the instruments was perfect timing and created a scary atmosphere. The taking part as citizens of Rome was exciting, awesome and fun. Mark Antony's speech made the most impact on me because we learnt the speech before, so we knew some of the words to the speech. The RSC actors costumes were amazing and unforgettable. Thank you,

Dear Mrs Westwood

Thank you for letting us come to Sydenham school to watch Julius Caesar. It was amazing. The part that I liked was when they were fighting.

Thank you for letting us play for 15 minutes in your school. We enjoyed the play so much. Mr Brettel chose us. I really liked the performance. I liked it when the actors were making the noises 'ush, ush, bang, bang'. That was amazing! I really liked the play the best <sup>performance</sup> I've ever seen. We also sang 'Who's that gives name Caesar Caesar' 'sh, sh, sh Caesar'.

Dear Mrs Westwood

Thank you for inviting Bishops Tachbrook school to Sydenham primary school to watch Julius Caesar the first encounter we really enjoyed it.

The Mark Antony speech, I thought it was inspiring to hear, and it made me want to speak up to bullies.

The play made me feel fascinated because the play was amazing. Being part of the citizens of Rome made me feel energetic. I think the part that had the most impact on me was when Caesar's ghost reappeared and the curtains fell it scared me so much, I will never forget it. I loved the set design it was definitely Shakespearian. I thought the costumes really looked like they were really made in Roman times. The instruments really made the play scary. My favourite actor was Cassius. Yours, Macy

Dear Mrs Westwood,

I am writing to you to say thank you for inviting us to your school and for letting us play in your lovely and gigantic play-ground for fifteen minutes, before the actors were ready for everyone that was outside on the play-ground. The play made me feel excited and I was speechless when the ghost of Caesar came to Brutus in his house. My favourite and unforgettable part was the big fight right at the end of the play.

Dear Mrs. Westwood,

Thank you for inviting us to Sydenham school. To play on your play ground while we were waitin for the actors was very kind of you. We also made lots of new friends while we were there

The play make me feel a bit emotional a times but not just emotional it also make me feel very excited and shocked at how good it was.

Seeing the Mark Antony speech in real life was emotional because his friend died and he was very distraught so it was quite touching to see him sad.

It make me feel quite excited taking part in the show because we got to play the citizens of Rome and we got to do actions and show different things

The part that had the most impact on me was the fighting because all the noises were very realistic and it was very Shakespearean.

My thoughts on the set design were amazing because they had put so much effort into it so we would enjoy watching the play.

The costumes were brilliant because it was all so realistic and just outstanding to watch I love watching Julius Caesar. The blood was amazing.

The part that I liked the most was when the curtains down and it scared me. The ghost of Caesar was so scary and amazing.

In the play I liked it when we chanted "whos that guys name Caesar, Caesar" when the lady did the drum I liked it because we make the sound of marching soldiers.

Yours Sincerely Ellie

Dear Mrs. Westwood,

Thank you for the unforgettable experience at Sydenham primary school. I'm so speechless about you letting us just invade the playground (sort of like the Roman invasion!)

I liked it because we're just about to go in. I saw a sign and it said Julius Caesar by the RSC. So I wonder <sup>what</sup> was your favourite bit of the play?

So thank you for the emotional, speechless, unforgettable, Shakespearean and amazing experience

Thank you for having us
